

Lyrics „Concert next Door“

Cherrytree Symphony

Cherrytree Symphony, listen to what it might be

Lower price butterflies, don't know what they mean to me

Misunderstood Hollywood, pay good – feel good

Never known telephone, unborn, too stoned

Where are all the cherries gone? very straight, very young

Lower price butterflies, cinnamon and cheese ice

Where do all the cherries went? Open dream, open end

Stone and henge, defense, world ends, cherrytree dance

Cherrytree scenery can't attract a vision of steel

Lower price butterflies tell a lot of lies to me

Misunderstood cherrywood, I could feel good

Never known telephone, unborn, too stoned

Where are all the cherries gone? very straight, very young

Lower price butterflies, cinnamon and cheese ice

Where do all the cherries went? Open dream, open end

Stone and henge, defense, world ends, cherrytree dance

Be Like You:

I wished that all those words I said will reach your mind one time, will reach your mind one time

You said that I should try your shoes, try your blues, try your life

But never blame me jealousy, because I'd never be so desperate, so desperate

But never blame me jealousy, because I'd never, I'd never wanna, I'd never wanna be like you

I'd never wanna be I'd never wanna be like you (repeating a few times)

I saw you crawling in my footsteps, licking on my cigarettes, walking in my shoes, but you forgot that I wear no...

Your helpless trying to ignore me is starting out to bore me, inspires me to be rude

But never blame me jealousy, because I'd never be so desperate, so desperate

But never blame me jealousy, because I'd never, I'd never wanna, I'd never wanna be like you

I'd never wanna be I'd never wanna be like you (repeating a few times)

(Solo)

Be like you, be like you, be like you

I'd never be like you, be like you, be like you (repeating a few times)

I still drive:

Sunday morning hole is waiting for you

And all those things that I stole fade away

I cannot even make you stay

I cannot live my life to pray

In time we have to pave the way and live today

Cut me down, let me out

I fade away, they still try to burn me down and shout on me

I am free, I'm alive, on my way I still drive, I still drive

Like a stranger's your eyes on me

And all the things that I always lived for disappeared

I always call the mirror weird

Executed by my fears

By all these hours I can't bear, I wished to hear

You cut me down, let me out

I fade away, they still try to burn me down and shout on me

I am free, I'm alive, on my way I still drive, I still drive

On those graves:

All my dreams have getting naughty while my death feels so alive

I've been losing all my pillows while I'm gaining all my drive

I will swap my salt for sugar, fill my bottles full of wine

I will never ever shiver, take your story, this is mine

Don't stop me, dancing on those graves, don't stop me, don't stop me

Don't stop me, dancing on those graves, don't stop me, don't stop me

I will never lose my brothers, I will never lose my faith

I will never lose my colours and I'll never lose my height

Don't stop me, dancing on those graves, don't stop me, don't stop me

Don't stop me, dancing on those graves, don't stop me, don't stop me

I will never lose the sky, I will never lose the stars

I will never lose your hands, if I'll never lose my wars

River:

The endless now has caught my back

Clothes and bones have turned to black

Lights bond slowly inside my mind, All feel is time, all I feel is time

The river flows back to the sea

And your ghosts are talking to me

I'm breaking out of my heart

Guide me back to the start

In search of instant medicine

To cure all shadows I have seen

The more I'm drowning inside the blue I'm diving into you, I'm diving into you

The river flows back to the sea

And your ghosts are talking to me

I'm breaking out of my heart

Guide me back to the start

(Solo)

Guide me back to the start (repeating 4 times)

The river flows back to the sea

And your ghosts are talking to me

The Bridge:

She built a bridge for him, from his homeplace to her town

And then she'd lie there still to make his thoughts come spinning

Round and round and round and round and round

He's going nowhere, but she started and went out

And then she built a house and then she burnt it to the ground

And then she tried to move but all these ashes sucked her out

And out and out and out and out

And he was not around and round and round and round and round

And all these hints she placed wherever he may find them and

Then she kept space in her heart to make him fit in and

All these hints she placed wherever he may find them and

Then she kept space in her heart, in her heart

She built a bridge for him, from his homeplace to her town

And she run to the hills to show him she was still around and round and round and round

And then she screamed his name aloud into the clouds

And all these hints she placed wherever he may find them and

Then she kept space in her heart to make him fit in and

All these hints she placed wherever he may find them and

Then she kept space in her heart, in her heart

(Solo)

And all those empty books and heavy bones and gold seekers

She knew they fought them right from the start, to never fit in there

And all those empty books and heavy bones and gold seekers

She knew they fought them right from the start, from the start

She's Dancing:

She's dancing on the rooftops with the flowers in her hair

She's dancing in the subway halls with her feet stuck to the stairs

She's dancing in the night and the moon will sing for her

She's dancing with her demons, but her demons won't lead her

She's dancing for her demons, but her demons won't play fair

She's always dancing like she never danced before

She's always dancing with her feet stuck to the floor

And oh those feeling that she gets when all those flowers busk her head

And so she's dancing, dancing, dancing, dancing to forget

She's locking in her nightmare to be wild and to be free

She's dancing in the cold spheres to a frozen melody

She's dancing in the night when the moon is hard to see

She's dancing for her demons, but her demons are hard to feed

She's dancing for her demons

She's always dancing like she never danced before

She's always dancing with her feet stuck to the floor

And oh those feeling that she gets when all those flowers busk her head

And so she's dancing, dancing, dancing, dancing to forget

(Solo)

And oh that feeling that she gets when all those monsters leave her head

And so she's dancing, dancing, dancing

And so she's dancing to forget that all her colours turned to black

And so she's dancing, dancing, dancing
